

ON SALE:
PRIVATE COLLECTION of STRING INSTRUMENTS

A selection of around 20 interesting violins, violas and cellos, 1680-1830, all in playing condition, including:

1. VIOLIN, Lavazza, Milano, ca 1700 (Dendrochronology: 1678/1679)
2. VIOLA, Milano, 17th C. in modern condition. Resembles very closely the work of the Testore-Family. Length of back: 40.8 cm
3. VIOLONCELLO, Pacherel-School, Turino, ca. 1830
Montagnana model, excellent as solo instrument.

Other violins, violas, violoncellos of the 17th and 18th C, some also in Baroque set-up. Some violas da gamba, modern, nevertheless of superior tonal qualities. NOTE: These instruments have outstanding tonal characteristics and are remarkably easy to play (proper setup) These instruments would satisfy the requirements of a professional musician.
